Getting to Campus

From Los Angeles International Airport (LAX):

Uber/Lyft

- Ride-sharing services are available in LAX's upper (Departures) level. Follow the signs to find the Ride Service Pickup area. Drivers will pick you up from there.
- Cost may vary depending on demand. In most cases, a ride will cost approximately $30.

Taxi

- One-way fare costs approximately $50.
- Look for the signs in the Ground Transportation areas of each terminal (outside Baggage Claim).

Shuttle

- Prime Time Shuttle offers a discounted one-way USC fare of $15.
- Look for the signs in the Ground Transportation areas of each terminal (outside Baggage Claim).
- Reservations should be made ahead of time at www.primetimeshuttle.com or by calling (800) 733-8267.

Driving:

USC is located approximately three miles south of Downtown Los Angeles, at the Exposition Boulevard exit of Interstate 110. Enter campus through Royal Street Entrance at Jefferson Boulevard and Royal Street. For parking locations and directions to campus, please click here.

Be sure to tell the parking attendant you are here for Explore USC. They will show you where to park, provide you with a permit, and give you directions to check-in at the Ronald Tutor Campus Center.

USC is also easily accessible by city bus or via the Expo Line train. Visit www.metro.net for routes and schedules.

Students may bring their luggage with them to check-in. (We will provide storage facilities.)
